

The National Children's Day

- Children's Day
In Thailand, Children's Day is celebrated on Saturday, 2 of January. Every year is a holiday that does not make the next working day (Monday.) Is provided. Children's Day theme. Every year. Prime Minister. The position at that time.

History

- National Children's Day event held for the first time. When the first Monday of October. Copyright 2498. By invitation of Mr. V M. Gulane check here. Representatives. Organization, the International Federation for child welfare Dry. United Nations. To the public the importance and needs of children. And encourage children to recognize the importance of their role in the country. The seed for children participating in society. Prepare themselves as being of workers.

- National Children's Day event held every year on the first Monday of October through. Copyright 2506. And. Copyright 2507. Can not keep up with events on children. Has begun again in the year. Copyright 2508. The change to Saturday, 2 of January. Since that is out of range. Rainy season. And holidays. Until today.

Children's Day theme

- Every year on this day, His Majesty the King gives an advice while the Supreme Patriarch gives a moral teaching. The Prime Minister also gives a slogan. This indicates that children are the most valuable resource of the nation. We often hear the saying that, "Children are the future of the nation, if the children are intelligent, the country will be prosperous." Therefore, children should ask themselves whether they are worthy children or not.

- The slogan in this year is “Mental thinking bright spark fresh commitments dream love harmony”. From Mr. Apisit Vejjajiva. Prime Minister.

Faction of children

- To prepare themselves to be strength of the nation, children should be industrious in their study, make use of their time wisely, being disciplined, diligent, helpful to each other, unselfish, being aware of right and duty and responsible towards the society.

Activity

- On this day, many interesting places such as the Duzit Zoo, the Army, Navy and Air force bases, Government House and Parliament House are opened for children to visit. Thus, all children look forward to National Children's Day.

Thank you for your attention